

EXPLORE TA
FRANCOPHONIE

ES-TU
PRÊT
à relever
LE DÉFI ?

EXPLORE TA FRANCOPHONIE

FRENCH SHORE

1713-1783

Defined during The Treaty of Utrecht, The French Shore gave access to French people to the Newfoundland coast for sea-sonal fishing. The colony

1783-1904

The French Shore is redefined.

CANADIENNE CONFEDERATION

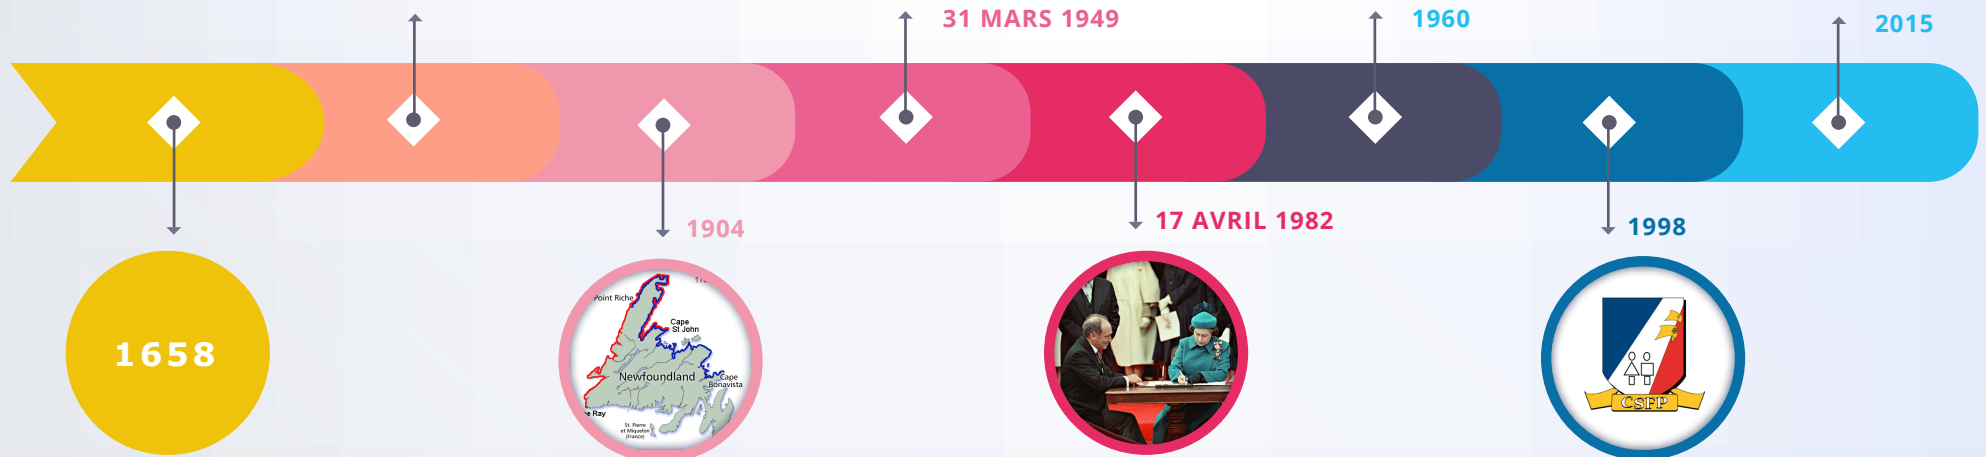

The entry of Newfoundland and Labrador to Canada didn't bring much to the franco-Newfoundlanders and Labradoreans at first. But this provincial historic moment, allowed them to claim their constitutional rights.

OPENING OF THE FIRST FRANCOPHONE SCHOOL IN LABRADOR CITY

After several revendications, The francophone community obtain for the provincial government the rights to open a francophone school in Labrador City and to offer an education in French.

PROVINCIAL POLICY ON FRENCH SERVICES

This policy has for goals to adopt a uni-form and coordinated approach to develop French services in the provincial government.

1658

1904

17 AVRIL 1982

1998

2015

FIRST SETTLERS

Settlement of the first colony of Placentia, followed by Grand Burin, Saint-Laurent, Mor-tier and Chapeau Rouge Harbours

THE ENTENTE CORDIALE

France give up on their rights to use the Newfoundland coast for fishing.

1982 CONSTITUTION

Pierre-Elliott Trudeau is First Minister. A serie of articles gave Canadian in minority language communities some rights, especially in education. The 23rd article of the constitutional law give obligations to province and territories to offer education in the minority language.

CREATION OF THE CSFP

The provincial government create a francophone school board, managed by the francophone community of Newfoundland and Labrador.

FFTNL

- Réseau Immigration francophone (RIF)
- Réseau Santé en français (RSF)
- Réseau Culturel francophone (RCF)
- COMPAS

PROVINCIAL COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

- RDÉETNL
- FPFTNL
- FJTNL
- Le Gaboteur

LOCAL COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

- ACSFJ (St-Jean)
- AFL (Labrador City)
- ARCO (Péninsule de Port-au-Port)
 - └ L'Héritage de l'Île Rouge (La Grand'Terre)
 - └ Les Terre-Neuviens Français (Cap St-Georges)
 - └ Chez les Français de l'Anse-à-Canards

La Fédération des Francophones de Terre-Neuve et du Labrador (FFTNL) is a not-for-profit organization that defends and promotes the rights and interests of the Francophone and Acadian communities in Newfoundland and Labrador.

The FFTNL manage three networks (RIF, RSF, RCF) and 5 members (Réseau d'employabilité et de développement économique de TNL, Franco-Jeunes de TNL, Association communautaire des francophones de Saint-Jean, Association francophone du Labrador and Association régionale de la côte Ouest).

Altogether, these organizations work for the development of the francophone and Acadian communities in Newfoundland and Labrador. The FFTNL makes sure to represent the francophone community alongside the provincial government, but also on a national and international level. It also offers services to its members.

Franco-Jeunes de Terre-Neuve et du Labrador (FJTNL), la Fédération des parents francophones de Terre-Neuve et du Labrador (FPFTNL) le Réseau de développement économique et d'employabilité de Terre-Neuve-et-Labrador (RDÉETNL) et Le Gaboteur are organizations who focus on one specific competency and which have a provincial scope.

The three local community associations are the representative for the communities called regional. They offer also, because of their mandate, diverse services which reflect the need of their community.

Cultural and artistic activities, French lessons, sport activities, cooking lessons, yoga, zumba, shows, ... in French of course !

THE FRANCOPHONE COMMUNITY